LARGEST CIRCULATION IN THE STATE.

LARGEST CIRCULATION IN THE CITY.

THE LIST OF LETTERS REMAINING in the Postoffice at the end of each week is published officially in THE DAILY NEWS every Friday morning.

LOCAL MATTERS.

ON our inside pages this morning will be found an interesting article on Reconstruction, by HONORABLE GREENLEE; Foreign Correspondence, Literary Notices, State Items, etc.

THE Augusta Press, of Saturday, mentions the following railroad accident: "The passenger train on the South Carolina Railroad, due here at five o'clock P.M., yesterday, ran off the track when about three miles from this city. Fortunately, there was no one hurt. The engine came up to the city and the passengers and mails were subsequently brought up."

THE FIRST CAR FOR THE STREET RAILWAY.—The steamship Granada, which arrived here yesterday from New York, brought the first car for the Street Railway. It is very neatly finished, the ornamental work being tasteful, plain and substantial. The car is capable of seating some twenty persons, and appears to unite neatness and comfort with substantial workmanship in a high degree. It is marked, in prominent letters, Broad street, Meeting street, Calhoun street, King's street. We congratulate the President, JOHN S. IRVING, Esq., on the near prospect of the completion of this useful enterprise, and hope it may prove a financial success as well as a public convenience.

LIFE OF ALEXANDER H. STEPHENS.—Why the life of Mr. STEPHENS should be written at this time we have not been able to surmise, for he is neither dead nor a candidate for the Presidency, but he is neither too early nor too late. But it seems Mr. HENRY CLEVELAND, formerly editor of the Augusta Constitutionalist, has written a life of the great Georgia statesman, and the National Publishing Company in Richmond is about to publish it. The publishers have sent us advance sheets as specimens of the work, and to judge from these, the book will be interesting and instructive to the reader. Its mechanical execution is unexceptionable. M. S. BARNETT is the agent for the work.

COTTON EXTRAORDINARY.—There is now on exhibition at our reading room a branch of a cotton stalk, two feet long, containing about forty open bolls of cotton. We are indebted for the same to Mr. GEORGE W. WILLIAMS, of the firm of GEORGE W. WILLIAMS & CO., by whom we are informed that the stalk from which it was taken bore, in all, two hundred and fifty bolls. It is a specimen of the most prolific species of short staple cotton known. Mr. DICKSON acquired considerable celebrity before the war for his successful cultivation of cotton in the barren pine lands of Georgia; and the specimen in our office is a proof that he continues his labors successfully. Messrs. GEORGE W. WILLIAMS & CO. are the agents for the sale of the seed in this city, and we advise all our cotton-planting readers to give them a call.

HOSPITALITY OF OUR COMMERCIAL MEN.—To the resident of Charleston it is a source of much gratification to observe the old and honorable commercial houses of this city resume the business positions which they, with so much credit to themselves, held before the war. They gave a reputation to this community for fair and honorable dealing which was of great and prominent advantage in the transactions of her merchants with other communities. Among others who have lately resumed their places is the well known firm of Geo. A. HOPLEY & CO. This house was, we think, commenced about 1820, by Mr. CHAS. LECARON, who carried on a large French business here for many years. Mr. Geo. A. HOPLEY afterwards succeeded to the business, and conducted, under the firm of Geo. A. HOPLEY & CO., large transactions with France, England and Germany. The office occupied by this firm, on South Atlantic Wharf, which was destroyed by fire during the war, has lately been restored, and they have reopened their place of business in a new structure on the same spot. On Saturday they gave a most elegant entertainment to their commercial friends, which was attended for several hours by the most prominent business men of the city. The house is at present conducted by M. SELIGMAN, Esq., long connected with the firm, and Mr. WUNDERLICH. Their friends here wish them the most abundant success.

THE CONCERT SATURDAY NIGHT.—On Saturday night Grover's Operatic Concert Troupe gave their farrowest entertainment to a full but not crowded house. The ladies were well represented, and the different varieties of the prevailing fashions were extensively displayed. Not that everybody was fashionably dressed, for many of the ladies even, who can usually dress neatly and with an air of fashion, despite the inconveniences of a scanty wardrobe, as a matter of taste eschewed latest styles; and as for the men—well, a fashionably dressed man is a rara avis in a Charleston audience. The variety, if not the harmony, of the scene was increased by a sprinkling of blue uniforms.

In the first part of the performance Mr. JOSEPH HERMANS' "Falafta" Song from the Merry Wives of Windsor was received with particular favor, and was encored so loudly and so persistently that Mr. H. was compelled to repeat it amid great applause. An aria from "The Barber of Seville," by Mr. WILLIAM FORMER, also made a favorable impression, and was enthusiastically encored.

In the second part Mr. HERMANS was again complimented; his "Drinking Song" from "Martha" being so uproariously applauded that he was compelled to make his appearance again and repeat it, in order to quell the tumult. The next piece, "Robin Adair," by Mr. THEODORE HARELMAN, met with a like reception.

The last part, consisting of the second act of "Martha," was magnificently performed, and gave some idea of what the company could do as a regular opera troupe. It was several times interrupted by vehement applause, and when the final scene closed, the audience dispersed, highly gratified with the evening's entertainment.

CUTTING NAILS ON SUNDAY.—Among the superstitions of "olden days," the time for the cutting of the nails seems to have excited as much attention as many other matters which have been brought to the view of all of us who are pleased with this peculiar kind of reading. In fact, we have ourselves met a number of persons who would not proceed with this cleanly operation but on a certain day of the week, and upon no consideration would attempt to trim their nails on a Friday or a Sunday. As others of our readers may have come across some acquaintances with similar notions, we print from an old work on the subject, a verse giving the pains as well as the benefits which result upon the day they may select to cut their nails:

"Cut 'em on Monday, you cut 'em for health;
Cut 'em on Tuesday, you cut 'em for wealth;
Cut 'em on Wednesday, you cut 'em for news;
Cut 'em on Thursday, a new pair of shoes;
Cut 'em on Friday, you cut 'em for sorrow;
Cut 'em on Saturday, you'll see your true-love to-morrow;
Cut 'em on Sunday, and you'll have the devil with you all the week."

MAYOR'S COURT, December 1.—A dilapidated looking individual, with scarlet hair and red eyes, was brought up for stealing rope from one of the wharves to make door mats, as he said. The case being fully proved, he was locked up for ten days, with a kindly hint that he had better suspend stealing rope, or it might end by the rope suspending him.

A female, who was not a Caledonian, but whose respect for St. Andrew compelled her to drink some twelve or fourteen glasses of the real stuff to her memory, got so confused about the fact as to be unable to walk, and consequently did what any other person under the same circumstances would have done, laid down and ruminated on the "situation." One of the "guardians," however, having heard her playing a favorite air on the nasal organ, considerably took her out of the dew, and the Mayor, when she was brought before him, in consequence of her solemn avowal that she had never tasted liquor before, fined her only $5.

A drayman who had obstructed a passage with his vehicle, and replied to the officer who politely required him to move it, in a manner not recognized as genteel in polite circles, was fined $5 as a first lesson in good manners.

John Williams, an individual of the colored persuasion, who had been seen by officer Levy to leave a wharf accompanied by a bag of cotton, and to throw the said bag into a cooper shop as soon as observed, and then put on a most innocent air, was sent to a magistrate, although he asserted, with great confidence, that the officer had mistaken the gentleman, and that bagging cotton was not exactly in his line.

Smoking on the wharves is such an expensive luxury, at the present time, that we should suppose but few would indulge in it; but quite a large number of masculines pay at the Guard House every day $5 apiece for the use of their segars and pipes, without grumbling, and this morning was not an exception.

THE CONSIGNEES by the steamship Sea Gull, from Baltimore, will take notice by the advertisement of her agents, this morning, that the ship is this day discharging at Union Wharf, and they will be required to remove their goods immediately.

FREE LUNCH is advertised by Mr. GEORGE KOLDEWEY, who lately was in partnership with Mr. KROEGE, in Wentworth street, next the Military Hall. Mr. KOLDEWEY now has established himself at No. 146 Meeting street, opposite the Pavilion. See advertisement.

DRUGS AND MEDICINES.—An advertisement will be noticed in another column of Messrs. E. H. KELLER & CO., who offer a large and well-selected stock of drugs of every description, soaps, perfumery, fancy articles, and whatever is usually kept for sale in a large first-class drug store. Both the partners being well known in the city, we can have no hesitation to recommend them to the confidence and patronage of the public.

SACRILEGE.—By an advertisement in to-day's News, under the head of "Lost, Strayed and Stolen," it will be perceived that some person or persons, instigated thereto by the devil, stole from the St. Mark's Chapel vestry room sundry toilet articles belonging to, and marked St. Mark's Church. When last heard from the said articles had not been found.

THE SUMMER NEWS, DARR & OSTEN, PROPRIETORS, is published every Thursday, at Sumter, S. C. It is a well managed paper, and has an extended circulation in that District, making it an excellent medium through which merchants and others may make known their business and location.

A NEGLIGENT COUGH, COLD, OR SORE THROAT, which might be checked by a simple remedy like "Brown's Bronchial Troches," if allowed to progress may terminate seriously. For Bronchitis, Asthma, Catarrh, and Consumptive Coughs, "The Troches" are used with advantage, giving oftentimes immediate relief. Singers and public speakers will find them also excellent to clear the voice and render articulation wonderfully easy.

TO THE LADIES.—We take pleasure in informing the ladies that those indispensable articles for the toilet, "Caldwell's Fragrant Lotion," for chapped hands and face, sore lips, sunburns; also, "Caldwell's Evaporative Hair Tonic," one of the best preparations known for preserving, beautifying and promoting the growth of the hair, are to be found at the new Hasel-street Drug Store, next to St. Mary's Church.

THE ART OF BEAUTY.—Cleanliness is an essential element of the art of beauty, and a pure, pleasant toilet soap is essential to cleanliness. Such an one is "COLGATE'S AROMATIC VEGETABLE SOAP," chemically prepared from the choicest ingredients, and preferred by mothers to all others for nursery uses. Druggists have it.

BOTTLED BEAST BUTLER.—In a speech made a short time ago by this celebrated personage, as we are informed by a correspondent, he violently exclaimed, while abusing the South, "I am for eternal war to the knife! war to the!" "spoons," shouted immediately hundreds of voices, which so took aback the hero of Fort Fisher, that he soon closed his gas bag and retired.

THE GREAT DRY GOODS CORNER of Charleston is at the northeast end of King and Market streets. Messrs. UFFERTHARD, CAMPBELL & CO. have the choicest assortment of Dry Goods, of every description, ever known in Charleston. The two senior partners of this firm have been known to King street shopping ladies for a great many years, during all which time they steadily grew, not only in experience and a thorough knowledge of business, but also in the confidence of all their customers, who now rely implicitly on whatever judgment Mr. U. or Mr. C. pronounce upon an article. Mr. CAMPBELL'S strong points are too well known to need more than this passing allusion. He is the junior partner. Their advertisement will be found in another column, and we have no doubt the store will be thronged for days until all these fine goods are sold.

THE EYE AND EAR.—Read Dr. GARDNER'S advertisement.

MOUNT PLEASANT AND SULLIVAN'S ISLAND FERRY. Attention is called to the change of schedule announced in another part of the paper.

SPECIAL TO THE LADIES.—At Mrs. S. J. COTCHETT'S Emporium of Fashion, No. 263 King street, can be found the largest and most choice selection of "millinery" in the city, and at the lowest prices. Ladies buying for the country will do well to call and examine before purchasing elsewhere.

Particular attention given to country orders.

WE refer to JOHN COLEMAN, No. 137 Meeting street, up stairs, who offers a new style brogan for cold weather. The soles are composed of leather and India rubber, rendering them perfectly water-proof. They are, without doubt, the most perfect and durable shoe ever offered in this market. They will be sold by the single pair, And also one hundred nests of trunks (grass bound), at the low price of $8.50 per nest.

SPIEGEL EISEN,

PRODUCED FROM THE ORE OF FRANKLINITE, OR CRYSTALLIZED IRON, wherever found, in which the combination of iron, manganese, &c., make that peculiar metal which is harder than the burglar's drill, is covered by the Patent of HERRING & FLOYD, when used as a

PROTECTION FROM BURGLARS,

and no Bank Safe or Safe Deposit Vault is secure without it. "Steel Safes," "Chilled Iron Safes," and "Case Hardened Safes," have had their day; each have been robbed by burglars, and the best security now known against drilling is found only in our new PATENT BANKERS SAFES, which, when made of proper thickness, is the best resistance to a Burglar's Drill ever manufactured.

The experience of the past few years has demonstrated that Burglars are fully up to the times, and that not only many Banks and Banking Houses are looking up their securities behind false protectors, but that it remains for a Banker to say how much security they will have—their safety depending entirely upon the price they pay.

A cheap safe gives but little protection, and the best always proves in the end to be the cheapest.

Our new Patent Bankers' Safe combines all the well-known resistances to a Burglar's tools, with the addition of the

which is found only in the ore of Franklinite, and in but few other localities of the globe. Call and Examine for yourselves.

THE MANHATTAN BANK, THE BANK OF COMMERCE, THE FIRST NATIONAL, THE CENTRAL NATIONAL, THE THIRD NATIONAL, BROWN, BROS. & CO., CLARK, DODGE & CO., FISK & HATCH, WINGLOU, LANSER & CO., and many other Banks and Bankers use it, and it is manufactured solely by

HERRING, FARREL & SHERMAN, No. 261 Broadway, New York.

DOMESTIC HAND MILLS,

FOR CLEANING RICE.

THE SUBSCRIBER INVITES THE ATTENTION OF the public to these MACHINES FOR CLEANING RICE, as they are got up expressly for home use. They are entirely of iron, of construction, and almost impossible to put them out of order; the necessary parts can be renewed at about the expense of a dollar; no skill required to work them, and the results will surprise those who know the time required; and the difficulty of cleaning Rice in the most improved City Mills can, with very small expense, be attached to steam, water or animal power. Persons desiring to have them are respectfully requested to try them with Rice.
